"The Highest Bidder."

"The Highest Bidder," given by the Frawley company as the matinee performance for Saturday afternoon, was played before a full house, notwithstanding the fact that the weather was most unfavorable. The characters all were well taken, and the play, filled as it was with fun and frolic, was enjoyed to the utmost. Miss Blanche L. Bates as Rose Thornhill, and Mr. Frank Worthing as the auctioneer who proves to be the "Highest Bidder," and the winner of the hand of Miss Thornhill, had the principal parts and their work was excellent. The love scene which takes place in the last act is most refreshing.

They're worth money—more money than we are going to ask you to pay—and we think they'll find purchasers before we have to resort to the desperate method of giving them away.

There is a face powder that has the preference over all others. The ladies of Honolulu are finding out that RAMONA VELVET FACE POWDER is without an equal. It is pure and harmless, and makes the skin feel well cared for. It corrects the little mistakes of nature. It imparts a delightful softness and delicate beauty to the skin without becoming visible to the eye.

Insist on having the Ramona, and get it of Lovers of perfume will be pleased to know that an eminent French specialist has discovered that many of these fragrant essences are not only harmless, but of actual value to health. He demonstrates this fact by the result of experiments whereby he exposed a number of disease microbes to the action of various essential oils distilled from flowers and plants. Bitter almond, thyme, lemon, and mint proved exceedingly killing, while lavender ranked higher than either eucalyptus, turpentine or camphor.

We have an immense assortment of Roger & Gallet's famous French perfumes direct from the factory. We are selling them at popular prices as usual. If you love perfumes—hardly anyone dislikes them—here is the opportunity to get the best the world produces at
